

About Allison

Allison Kaplan, MS is a Senior Consultant for The Blake Leath Group (“TBLG”) — a dynamic research, curriculum development and intellectual property greenhouse that grows leaders and shapes cultures. Allison has extensive experience in talent acquisition and management with a focus in developing human capital programs for the global sourcing/outsourcing industry. Additionally, she is a strong resource with tremendous depth in project management, process improvement, training and development, vendor selection and management and diversity initiatives.

Allison achieves results by creating effective processes and leveraging team capabilities to maximize outcomes. She has worked closely with companies including JCPenney, Pitney Bowes, Infosys Technologies, EDS, and the American Airlines Center on various talent management initiatives including the development of recruiting strategies, onboarding programs, and diversity training. Allison also provides career management services to individuals in transition.

Allison earned her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology at the University of Texas at Austin and her Master of Science in Human Relations & Business at Amberton University in Dallas, TX. She is also a certified Human Capital Principal through the Human Capital Institute.

Although Allison resides in Dallas, TX she loves to travel and has played and worked in Asia Pacific (APAC) and Central America. She is also very passionate about Longhorn football – “Hook ‘em!”

